WORDS OF WISDOM

A Final Farewell to the Class of 2003

There is a good reason they call these ceremonies "commencement exercises." Graduation is not the end; it's the beginning. ~Orrin Hatch

You are educated. Your certification is in your degree. You may think of it as the ticket to the good life. Let me ask you to think of an alternative. Think of it as your ticket to change the world. ~Tom Brokaw

Think big thoughts but relish small pleasures. ~H. Jackson Brown, Jr., Life's Little Instruction Book

You cannot help but learn more as you take the world into your hands. Take it up reverently, for it is an old piece of clay, with millions of thumbprints on it. ~John Updike

Wherever you go, go with all your heart. ~Confucius

You have brains in your head.

You have feet in your shoes.

You can steer yourself in any direction you choose.

You're on your own.

And you know what you know.

You are the guy who'll decide where to go.

~Dr. Seuss

Obstacles are those frightful things you see when you take your eyes off your goal.

Spring Fling 2003

"Come On
I Want To Lay
You"

Above: Seniors Jessie Melton and Melinda Roberts are sporting the grass skirts while they dance Hawaiian style.

Above: Senior Roy Bartlett seems to have been "leid" a few times between eating a little grub and dancing his "bird" off.

More Spring Flingers

Ben Wicker and friend are matching quite well in their red, white, and black.

Above: Sophomores Becky, Stephanie, Lori, and Marie went in style with semi-formal dresses accompanied by clashing leis in honor of the theme.

For the past years our annual Spring Fling has been held at the Lord Lindsey in the Old City Knoxville. This year as the theme implies, leis were given out to those who wanted them. Some dressed formal to semi-formal, and others dressed in their Hawaiian attire. It really does not matter what is worn to the annual Fling as long as everyone goes and has a great time. All in all, this year's Spring Fling was a success due to the sponsorship of our Student Programming Board. Thank you.

Above: Freshmen Spencer and Georgia are looking very pleased to be taking a break on the comfy chair. It looks as if it does not matter what color lei you can as long as you are wearing one.

Faculty Dedication

This year the Chilhowean Yearbook Staff is pleased to dedicate the 2002-2003 yearbook to Dr. Margie Ribble

Nearly everyone that has come through Maryville College in the past fourteen years has had a chance to meet, and possibly have a class, with Dr. Margie Ribble. She is both a wonderful teacher and a good friend to all who know her. If you have been privileged enough to have a class with her, then I am sure that you would agree.

Dr. Ribble grew up in a family that placed a great emphasis on the value of education. Her father and mother both held graduate degrees and encouraged her to pursue her education, which she did here at Maryville College. Dr. Ribble fondly recalls riding on the bus all the way from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania to Maryville, Tennessee by herself. Even though Dr. Ribble was an excellent student while she was here, she did take part in the occasional prank, including a late night Groundhog Day party after curfew with her friends. Despite a few bent rules, Dr. Ribble finished her education at Maryville College and received her degree.

Dr. Ribble is well respected by her peers and, as an active faculty member, has been very involved in the Maryville College Community. Dr. Ribble is most active in the Maryville College Community Orchestra. She is one of the longest playing members of the Orchestra, having been a part of the Orchestra ever since her freshman year at Maryville. While still playing, Dr. Ribble also sits on the Orchestra's board and helps with all of the behind the scenes decisions. Dr. Ribble is also active with the Math and Computer Science Club. Along with several other professors, Dr. Ribble helped organize and start the Math and Computer Science Club, which has been very beneficial to its members. Also, Dr. Ribble has, on several different occasions, taught a senior seminar class on Fibonacci to help students understand the importance of numbers.

As a math teacher, Dr. Ribble tries to leave her students, mostly non-math majors, with the understanding that math is fun and learnable. She also wants her students to understand that it is never too late to learn. She has witnessed this theory in her own life by pursuing and earning her Doctorate in Mathematics in 1999, just one month shy of her sixtieth birthday.

Thank-You Dr. Ribble for all that you do. Your work does not go unnoticed.

Faculty

Due to lack of interest from faculty members, the following thirteen faculty members were the only ones to have their pictures taken. The lack of pictures has obviously resulted in a small and boring layout of the faculty section. Be sure to encourage your professors to get their pictures taken in the future!

SCOTTIES

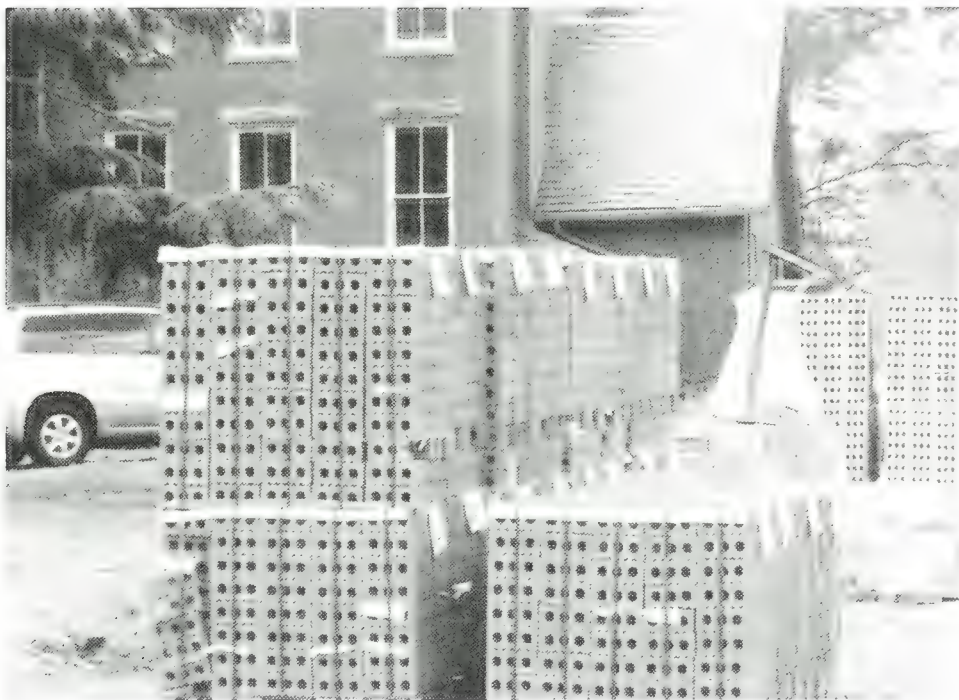

The annual staff extends its apologies. Poor picture quality of some group shots is the result of efforts with digital technology.

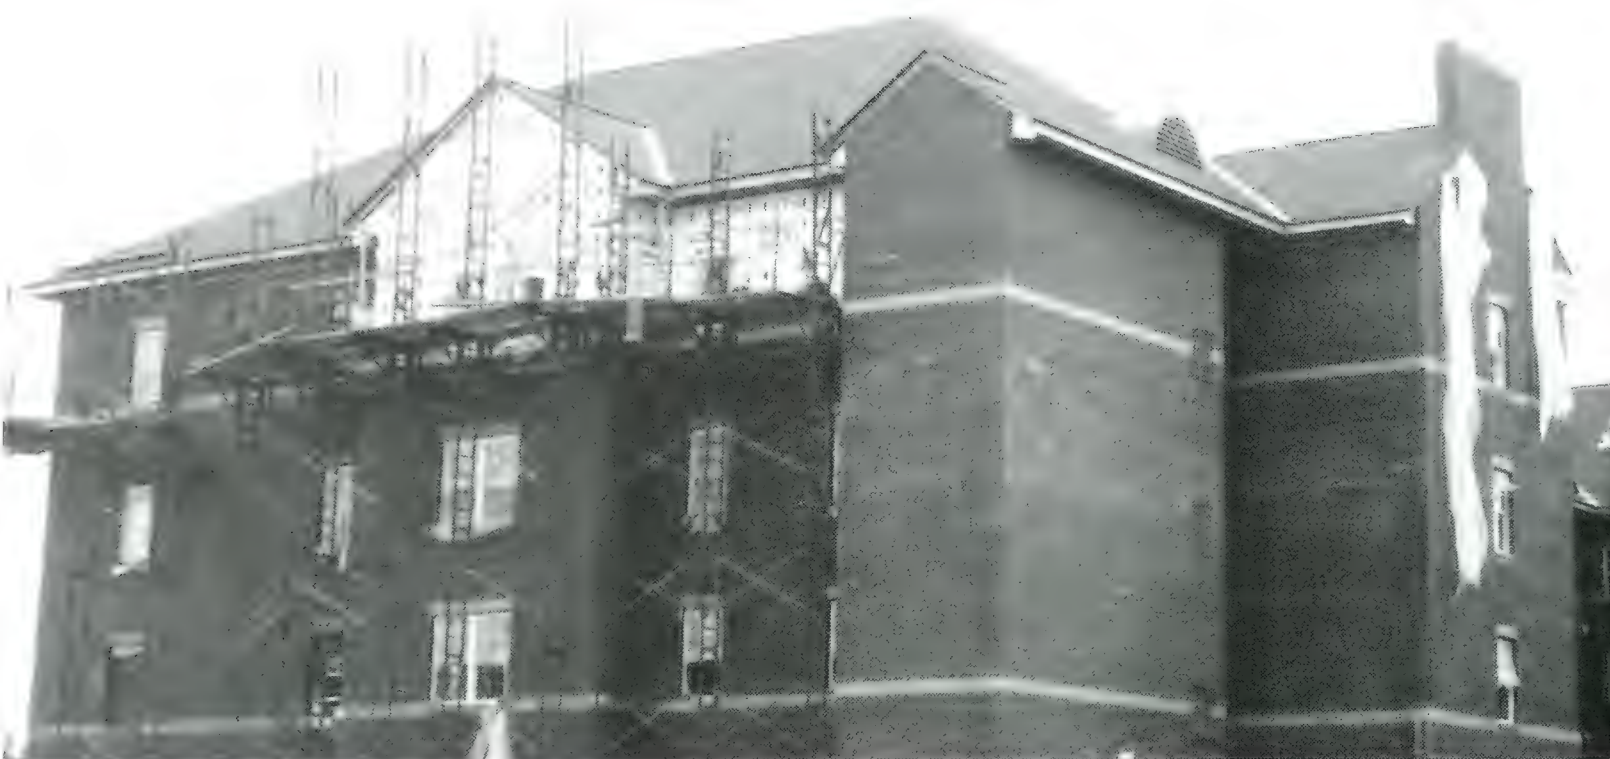

Paving the Way to Change

The 2002-2003 year provided Maryville College with many changes in and around the Maryville College community.

Organizations are now to go through a tireless process to get approved as an official campus organization, as witnessed through the year long approval process of CLOSET. Not only were changes being made within the community, but the new Lloyd Residence Hall was being built as well as roads being demolished. The following pages display some of the physical changes that have taken place to our campus. These physical changes inspired the theme of this year's Chilhowean. We hope it has been as enjoyable to view as it was to create.

-2002-2003 Chilhowean editors and staff

Abbie, we are so proud of you. You have worked so hard and achieved so much. Your love and compassion for others has shown throughout your life. Just be yourself and you will do wonderfully in life.

Love Dad, Mom, and Sarah

Harold Jr., you believed in him. We believed in you and it was done. Congratulations, you did it.

*We love you,
Mon and Dad and family*

Congratulations Brian! We are so proud of you. May all your hard work, persistence and courage bring you the happiness that you deserve.

*Love,
Mom, Dad, Gramma, and
Grandpa*

Lauren, there is no doubt in our minds that you will accomplish every goal you set. You have proven that. The pride we feel for you is exceeded only by our love. You stand on the threshold of a new beginning...be courageous, and step through the door.

*We are proud of your accomplishments.
You have worked hard and persevered.
We are here when you need us.*

Love - Mom and Dad

Congratulations on four great years - Ben Robison, Ben Jackson, Nick Lollar, Josh Tummel. Thanks for all the fun.

Jeff & Kathy Robison

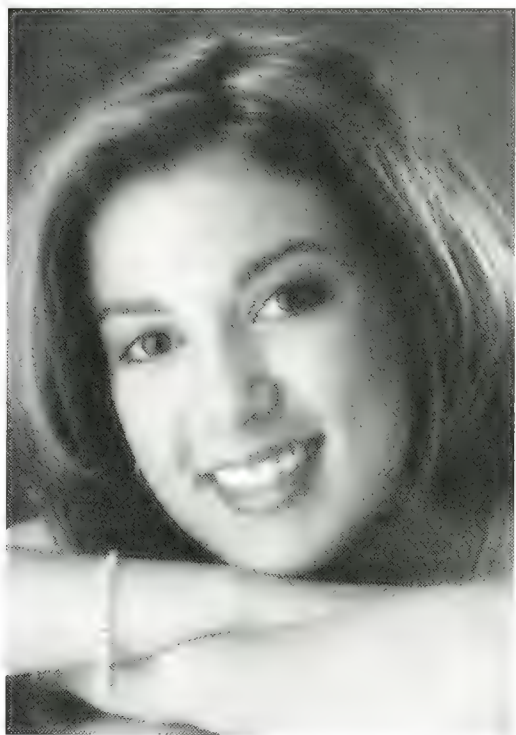

Lisa & Jesse,

The two of you have successfully made it through Jr. high, high school and now college. There were good times and bad but you always had each other.

It's only natural that you start your new life together.

*Congratulations!
We love you both,
Mom & Dad*

*Rachel,
We are so very proud of you.
Congratulations. Continue living for Christ.*

*Love,
Mama, Phil, Daddy, Granny,
Grandmother. Emily, Anna, Seth and their families.*

*Ben,
God in His mercy has given us a son who has achieved and done well. More important a son who will make this world a better place. Congratulations and God speed in all that you do.
Love, Mom & Dad*

Congratulations. We knew you could do it! Have fun in life. Love, Christopher & Courtney

*You've accomplished so much through lots of hard work - along with fun. [No broken bones, thank heaven!] We're proud of you. Congratulations!
Love, Mom & Dad*

Amelia,

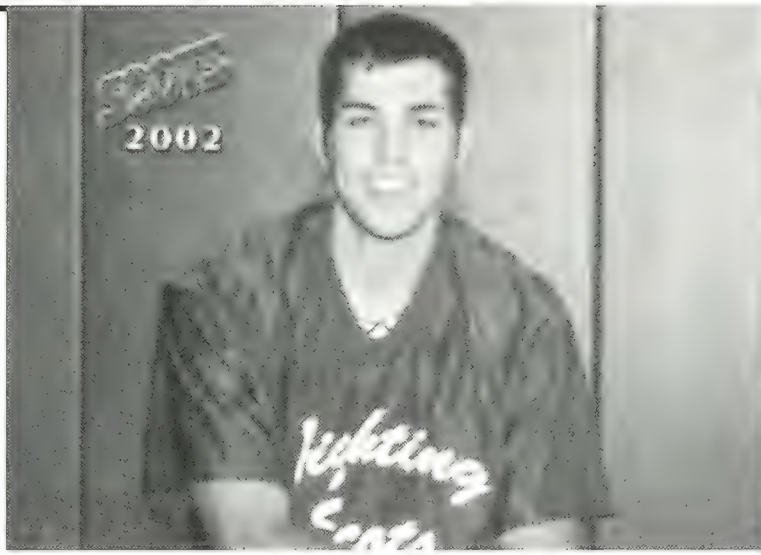

The entire family [father, sisters, brothers] is so very proud of you. But as your Mother my pride is hard to describe. You have done everything I have asked of you and even beyond. Keep God before you and you can accomplish anything! I love you,

Mom

Kristin, Time may bring many changes to your life but with your determination and kind heart we know you will succeed. We are all so proud of you. Always stay true to the person you are today.

*We love you,
Rob, Mom, Matt, Kristy and Kris*

Joshua - our gift from God - You have brought immeasurable joy into our lives. Your many accomplishments have made us proud.

We wish you only the best in the journey ahead of you.

Believe you can and you will.

Love, Mom and Dad

Lois Ann we want you to know how proud of you we are. You have worked so hard to accomplish this education. You are one special lady to each of us and we love you dearly. May God add his richest blessings upon you as you begin your new career.

Amanda, I am so proud of you! May all your dreams come true. "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

Love, Mom

It's all about "strategy."

Congratulations!

Love and Pride,

Dad, Mom and Doug

"You must be the change you wish to see in the world."

- Mahatma Gandhi

"To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream; not only plan, but also believe."

Anatole France

Ben, we are so proud of the person you've become and everything you've accomplished. We love you very much and wish you the best of everything in life.

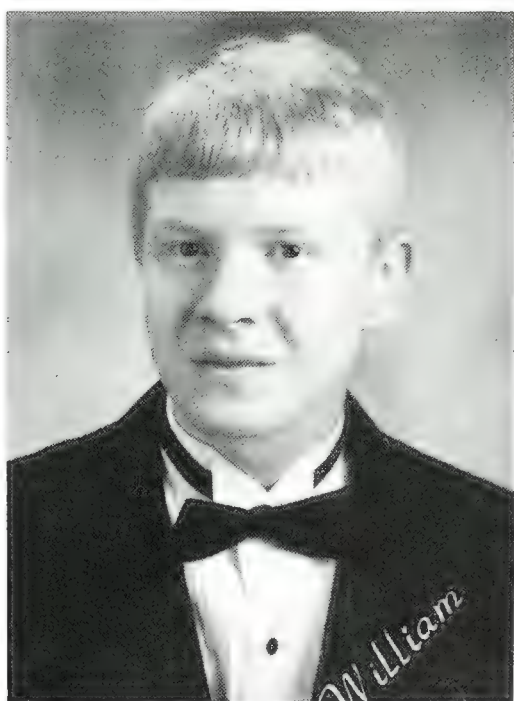

Love, Mom, Dad & Megan

Congratulations Lee! We are so very proud of the woman you have become. God has blessed you with many talents, spiritual gifts, and abilities. May you always use them for His honor and glory. Your loving, caring, compassionate spirit shines.

*We love you,
Daddy, Momma, Robin, Charlie, and Kathryn*

Congratulations Scott, we are very proud of you. We wish you all the best in your future.

Love Dad, Mom, Stephanie and Grandpa

Congratulations, William!

Words cannot describe the joy and happiness you've brought into our lives. We're so proud of you and of the wonderful person you have become. Your determination to achieve your goals all along the way has been truly inspiring. We love you.

Mom, Dad, and Elizabeth

Congratulations Rachael!

We are so proud of you. May all your dreams come true!

We love you,

Mom, Dad, Nicolas and Kenobi

Our sweet little boy has grown into an extraordinary young man. We're all so proud of you, Roy, and we love you!

Congratulations!

Mom, Dad and Bree

Erín:

A milestone for you and us: we fondly remember your leaving home for Kindergarten on your own. Now, you've graduated from college! As you develop new chapters in your life, remember our promise that we always love and support you. Congratulations, Erin, and God speed.

Love,

Mom and Dad

Rebecca, what a wonderful young woman you have become - we are so proud of you and all your accomplishments! Congratulations on completing this major milestone, in awesome style! As you go on to share your talents and compassion, please remember we will always love you!

Mom, Dad, Molly & Patrick.

*Yahoo! The trail has been long and dry.
Your feet finally reach the stirrups, so set your spurs and ride hard.*

Love, Dad, Mom & Travis

Molly, homesick in the boys dorm, freshman English, habitat houses, religious classes, apartment, trip to Americus, caving, exceptional biologist, bobbing tadpoles, thesis, graduation... We are very proud of you and your many accomplishments.

Love, Mom & Dad

Your dedication and determination were unflinching; they made this day possible. Having you for a son and brother has always meant something wonderful. You're one of the greatest gifts life has given and you're loved very much and we are very proud of you!

With love, Mama, Daddy, Cassandra, Glenita, and Junior

*Melanie "Jill" Gibson,
Congratulations from your family.
We are proud of all you have accomplished. Best of success in graduate school. As always "Keep your eyes upon Jesus," and remember all things are for a reason.*

Love,

Daddy, Mama, Martí, and Belar

STEVIE'S PAGE

Now I can somewhat sympathize with the actors and actresses at the Academy Awards: I have to make sure I don't forget to thank anyone and try to think of something interesting and/or profound to say. At least I don't have the pressure of being on a live broadcast! It has been the best year yet despite the bad times, but what year doesn't have those? And if all goes well, this will be the best yearbook this group of editors has produced yet. So thanks to Bethany for preparing me for what I'm getting into next year and for all the random comments at meetings and while we were just goofing off. Thanks to Fairlena for showing the computer science major how to use the software and digital pictures and for all the patience. Thanks to Michelle for putting up with my many trips up to see her just for updating her on problems we've had and for film costs that we incurred this year. Also thanks to Sarah, Jonathan, and Jessie for helping with the physical labor of putting the book together and to everyone in the student body who let us borrow your valuable pictures to put in the book. Finally, thanks to my buddies for the great year: Ash and Lauren (even though Lauren was only around half of the year!), the Carnegie and Pearsons gangs for all the fun and drama, and to Tia, Miranda, Mark, Chance, Tim, Michael, Nate, Richard, T.J., Doug, and Lauren E. for keeping me sane with all the laughs. Now for the "profound" part: Remember you're unique just like everyone else!

Note: If I left you off of the thank you's, it wasn't on purpose, I promise! You can beat me up later...

BETHANY'S PAGE

Another year has come and gone and another Chilhowean has been produced. It has been two years and three books since I've stepped into the position of chief editor and the time has come for me to pass the torch. I cannot lie and say that I will not miss the stress and work because deep down inside I feel like I am losing a part of me by leaving the Chilhowean my senior year but there are many more things I have to devote my senior year to - such as finishing thesis and beginning my practicum. But before I say good-bye to the monster that has become my life the past two years, I must say thank you to many individuals who have helped and pushed me along the journey.

Stevie-Girl I know you are more than ready to take over next year. I'm so going to miss our "meetings." I'm here for you next year for all the problems that probably will arise. I love you and couldn't have asked for a better assistant editor!

Fairlena-Congratulations on completing your years at Maryville College and surviving the Chilhowean. Thank you so much for teaching me the ropes and being patient with me while I learned all the technical computer stuff. I will miss you bunches!

Michelle-Can you believe I'm actually leaving all this stuff? Thank you so much for being there for me no matter what was going on in my life. I know that I can count on you to be there for me no matter what I am going through. Thanks for believing in me and giving me the opportunity to serve as chief editor.

Dr. Schneibel-Thank you for being the greatest thesis advisor I could have. Not only have you helped me improve my writing, but have also strength my confidence and become a dear friend.

Dave Powell-Thank you for showing me that you are an advisor that truly cares. I know that no matter what is going on I can turn to you for a listening ear. Thanks for teaching me to stop and smell the flowers

Kathryn, Cathy, Jennifer, Sara Beth, Scarlett, and the rest of the English gang-Thanks for the great times in Humanities, HEL, British Lit. and etc. Our laughs are something I will always cherish and remember

IVCF-Your prayers and support have seen me through another years of struggles and triumphs. I love you all dearly

And that concludes another chapter of my life - the chapter about being the Chilhowean editor. It has been the best two years of my life despite all the difficulties that come with being an editor. Thank you for making it special and being patient with me.

~Bethany Horvath

2002-2003 Chilhowean Editor
